Subject: ODEQ's review of final drafts of Feasibility Study and Proposed Plan

Hi Kevin,

Thank you for the good conversations for the past couple of days on DEQ's role as the support agency in reviewing the final drafts of documents leading to the release of the Proposed Plan. In light of the state's involvement and coordination to date, and in an effort not to delay the release of the Feasibility Study and the Proposed Plan, it is EPA's understanding that ODEQ wishes to waive its right, provided by the National Contingency Plan at 40 CFR 300.515(h), to review and comment on the Portland Harbor Feasibility Study and Proposed Plan at this time. Rather, ODEQ intends to provide any comments on the documents during the public comment period. Please confirm whether our understanding is correct.

Thanks,

Davis Zhen
